

Lake Placid – Your path to the great outdoors

Royal Rangers is a ministry of the Assemblies of God designed to provide young people with exciting outdoor and camping activities nurturing their physical, social and spiritual development.

Fixed on 500 acres of woods, fields and lakeshore, Lake Placid Camp is headquarters of Royal Rangers.

Other Groups are welcome!

It features bunk-house style lodging, an accommodating kitchen and a lodge for dining and meetings. Activities to enjoy include hiking, canoeing, fishing, marksmanship or just reflecting on what God has created.

Camp & Conference Center

Lake Placid Camp is a place for your group's conference, meeting or retreat. Enjoy the solitude and rustic setting in the Northwood's of Minnesota. Please consider us, if your group would like to take advantage of our bunk-house – style lodging, an accommodating kitchen for your food preparation, and a snug lodge area for meeting and dining.

Depending on sleeping needs, our two bunkhouses will sleep up to 45 people. Showers and restrooms are located in the bunkhouse buildings.

Room for 80 campers—The Picnic Shelter is a wonderful camping tradition, rain or shine.

Location

Near Pillager, MN — off County Road #1

Accommodations

Relax in our Norm Klaasson Conference Center — It's perfect for a group meetings. Gather around the fieldstone fireplace on a chilly evening, sleep snugly in the bunkhouse, and rise early in the morning for a hearty breakfast in the meeting area.

Relax in our accommodating cabin or be a part of the gang in one of our two bunkhouses, which sleeps up to 45!

Activities

With 500 acres, a well maintained trail system and lakeshore galore, there are always things to do. Hiking, canoeing, fishing and swimming are favorites but don't forget the climbing wall and rifle range for youth and adults alike. Winter has it's own rewards, like snow shoeing, cross-country skiing and snowmobiling.
