Guest Speakers

Scott Hagan is the president of North Central University. A natural leader, Scott has been drawn to the study and practical application of leadership inside and outside the church. He has written six books on leadership and speaks regularly at conferences, seminars, and on college campuses.

Roger Huang is the founder and executive director of San Francisco City Impact, a ministry he started with his wife, Maite, in the inner city Tenderloin District in 1984. Today, the ministry has grown to five major departments with 11 weekly programs. Everything they do is to intervene on behalf of the people in the inner city of San Francisco.
